GASCONNE MAY WIN FROM OLLIE BURNET

Fizer Youngster Seems Capable of Turning Tables in Third at Delmar.

On their last meeting, Gasconne swerved badly after appearing to have a winning coming down the stretch. Ollie Burnett got up in time to beat her by a

With the track favoring Gasconne rather than Ollie Burnett to-day, it looks as if the Fizer stable should find itself one purse richer by the time the third event has been run. Bavarian won hand-dly enough yesterday to justify the belief taht he will be a contender here, and his nces cannot be overlooked.

In the fourth race Vestry's early speed should help the Goldblatt mare to score. She seems to outclass this bunch somewhat, and it looks as if she should win. sonhurst finished better than is his wont in the fourth event of yesterday, and he may possibly be the contender, with Ingolthrift third.

The fifth race brings out a fair-class field, in which Check Morgan will win if she can run back to her form of her last out. Drummond and Miracle II may be contenders at the end. Old Worthington would be a strong opponent for any horse here, and would stand out prominently if the track was in a slushy state.

He seems to have a bit too much of it Intely, however, and can be passed up today. His weight will not suit him on the track likely to prevail this afternoon, and it is probable that he will be withdrawn. In the last race Kindred ought to score after the terrific flash of speed he showed resterday. He hat all his old-time frontroming addity, ied his field by a wide margin for the entire early stages, and should be much improved by the race.

Although be went wide on the turn, he sired somewhat at the end, and his backing up in the final stages of the race was sprobably, due to this cause more than to any loss of ground by going wide.

Responsive and Algonquin appear to be the contenders in the order named. Responsive has light weight to-day and should do better than on her last appearance.

linois defeated her opponents by a score of 23 to 2.

The hot weather caused great suffering on the part of the players, who were unable to stand the heat. Hazelwood stretched his 299 pounds on the gridinon and was carried off. It was impossible to keep one man in very long, and illinois used three elevens. The Illini scored three touchdowns in the first helf. Rothgeb, Hazelwood and Holderby showing well. Joe Taylor made a rattling run on a fake kick.

In the second half the collegians put up a plucky fight and held their big opponents to one score. Toward the last of the game Williams was downed behind the illinois goal line by Harp for a safety after the Illinois player had caught a kick and tried to run with it.

SCORE IS TEN TO NOTHING. McGINLEY'S GREAT PITCHING.

Myrtle and Maroon Team Holds New England Twirler Makes Im-Down Illinois Crowd, but Tires Near the End of the Game.

Washington University defeated the Shurtleff College team of Alton, Ill., in the opening game of local football at the World's Fair Stadium yesterday afternoon by the score of 10 to 0. The game was all local except in the last few minutes of play in the second helf of the game, when the Shurtleff boys had W. U. on the defensive. The W. U. boys outweighed their oponents about ten pounds, and, although the weather was very warm, the padded uniform artists did not long for the sound of the whistle signaling them to stop play. Only one change was made in the lineup of the teams. About five minutes be-fore the call for first half Fritz Lehmann was put out for a few seconds. He resumed play, but only for a short while, when he was completely exhausted. Shumberg was substituted and filled the mann kicked to Haynes, who brought it in about five yards. Van Duyne on the next play came in three yards further.

Washington was penalized twice in this half for off-side plays, and lost ten yards on each.

After three minutes of play in this half, the Washington boys appeared to become weak and, with the ball near the center of the field, all that was necessary was for them to play on the defensive.

The Shurtleff team was clearly the better in the last half, and had the time been extended it is probable that they would have scored, as they were forging the ball slowly but surely toward the Washington line.

Walter Krause, Seth Smith and Lehmann played well for the local boys, and whenever they secured the ball brought it several yards to the good. Van Duyne, Howard and Parks did the best individual work for the Shurtleff crowd.

Logan played quarter for the Washington team, Bischoff being forbidden by the faculty to play.

Shumberg was substituted and filled the position well.

Shurtleff kicked off at 2 o'clock to Smith's territory; he rushed the ball back about two yards. Walter Krause then advanced the ball twice and covered about six yards.

When they lined up again Lehmann made a good run of ten yards. By bucking, Krause and Lehmann got the ball to within one-half yard of the goal line. On the next formation Lehmann was easily pushed over the line. This was after seven minutes of play. Seth Smith failed to kick goal.

Lehman kicked to Swain, who lost the ball to the former. On the return he carried it five yards. Smith then made a left-end run of twenty yards. A few minutes after this Walter Krause scored the second touchdown through left tackle.

Smith again failed to kick goal. With only one minute left to play, the ball at the end of time was in the hands of the local players near the center of the field.

SECOND HALF BLANK.

Neither side scored in the second half, which was of ten minutes duration. Leh-man is an advanced to play as a fer men the plate.

FARRELL MAKES BAD PLAY.

This, however, does not detract from St.

Louis'g victory. The men managed by Nichols have shown unusually good form in their games to Rooklyn. In fact, there has not been a team here this season that has played any faster ball than has St. Louis in the present reries.

From the veryolnt of Brooklyn enthusiasts, Nichols has an aggresation which, with proper coaching, will prove winners next season. His young players look very strong. Hill and Murch need experience, but that is about all. Both are natural ball players and are sure to be heard from in the future.

SECOND GAME.

New York, Sept. 28.—It was the same old story at Washington Park this afternoon—Brooklyn again defeated. There was a time when Ned Hanlon had a team he dubbed a "sweet" one, but the men he now has on his pay roll do not class much ingher than mirror learners. DRS. FRANCIS & FRANCIS, score. Stupidity on the bases by Farreit prevented run-getting.

Hanion's hopefuls took their usual dose of medicine in the third inning, and, with errors by Babb and Jordan and a double by Hill, two St. Louis men romped over the plate. Not satisfied with this, Nichols's men added three more tallies in the fourth inning. Smoot opened up with a safe bunt and scored on Dunleavy's torili drive to left center for three bases.

After Shay was easily retired on a pop fly Mike Grady met one of Cronin's benders asafely, and before the ball was returned the aggressive catcher was safely anchored on third base and Dunleavy had scored. McGinley was an out, but Farreli singled, bringing in Grady.

In the next three innings St. Louis went out in order. In the eighth, after one run was out. Dunleavy beat out a bunt, went to second on a wild throw by Dillon, Brooklyn's captain, and tallied on Grady's single. Another run was made by the Westerners in their half of the ninth, making their total 7.

Brooklyn took a brace in their final try, and an error, a base on balls and a hit netted two runs.
